MORE! ROCKS IN YOUR HEAD

A one day Earth Science Workshop for elementary and middle school teachers
 Sheraton New Orleans • 10 & 11 April 2010

— Sponsored by Shell in memory of Brian O'Neill —

The nationally acclaimed workshop, More! Rocks in Your Head, covers a full scope of earth sciences for elementary and middle school teachers. Comprehensive manual and materials enable full or partial incorporation into curriculum.

Teach each activity with confidence, guided with 1) background information, 2) vocabulary, 3) project information, 4) project/s, 5) advanced thinking topics, and 6) cross-curricular ideas with language arts, social and other sciences, and math. All projects are hands-on, making earth science a fun and memorable learning experience.
