

SPONSORSHIP MENU

The AAPG Latin America & Caribbean Region invites your company to be part of the Virtual Research Symposia 2020, a series of technical conferences highlighting the geology of some of the region's most fascinating and prolific basins. Presentations will highlight state-of-the-art concepts, methodologies, case histories and future directions relating to the symposium theme and geographic region featured. Sponsorship provides your company with high visibility before a global audience of experts from industry and academia and enables us to offer highly discounted registration prices during this challenging time.
