Notable journalistic achievement in any medium which contributes to public understanding of geology, energy resources, or the technology of oil and gas exploration.

Restrictions:

Whereas members of AAPG are not excluded, as a general rule, it is expected that candidates would be professional journalists, writers, commentators, etc. Writers for petroleum industry publications whose job it is to contribute to the public understanding of geology, energy resources, or the technology of oil and gas exploration would be excluded unless there has been an extra effort that has been clearly beneficial by informing the general public.
